

PAUL R. SMITH MIDDLE SCHOOL ATHLETE CHARACTER TRAITS

You can be a great student athlete by mastering these principles to develop yourself!

CALLING ALL EAGLES!

Paul R. Smith Middle School supports the FHSAA Program. Sportsmanship and Citizenship will form the foundation of all Athletic Programs. Student athletes, parents, coaches and spectators are expected to adhere to the principles of good sportsmanship at all times. Interscholastic athletics serves an educational function in public schools. It is not all about winning. It is also about student athletes being taught the competitive cornerstones of a democratic society. Quite simply, the fields, gyms, courts, and courses are classrooms.

Here are the character traits we seek when selecting our student athletes.

TRUSTWORTHINESS

- Be honest – Don't deceive, cheat or steal
