

Pasco County Title 1 School Level
Parent and Family Engagement Plan 2023-2024

Paul R. Smith Middle School

Each Title I school shall jointly develop with parents and family members of participating children, a written plan that shall describe how the school will carry out the requirements mentioned below. Parents shall be notified of the plan in an understandable and uniform format and, to the extent practical, provided in a language the parents can understand. The school plan must be made available to the local community and updated and agreed on by parents periodically to meet the changing needs of parents and the school.

School's vision for engaging families: Our mission at Paul R. Smith Middle School is to develop self-motivated lifelong learners who reach their highest potential. This occurs through a challenging and stimulating curriculum and the establishment of positive relationships between teachers, students, parents, and the community.

What is Required:

Assurances: We will:

- ☒ Involve an adequate representation of parents, or establish a parent advisory board to represent families, in developing and evaluating the "School Parent and Family Engagement Plan" that describes how the school will carry out its required family engagement activities.
- ☒ Hold an annual meeting for families to explain the Title I program and the rights of parents to be involved. Offer other meetings/workshops at flexible times.
- ☒ Use a portion of Title I funds to support parent and family engagement and involve parents in deciding how these funds are to be used.
- ☒ Involve parents in the planning, review, and improvement of the Title I program.
- ☒ Develop a school-parent compact that outlines how parents, students, and school staff will share the responsibility for improving student achievement, and describes how parents and teachers will communicate.
- ☒ Offer assistance to parents in understanding the education system and the state standards, and how to support their children's achievement.
- ☒ Provide materials and training to help parents support their child's learning at home. Educate teachers and other school staff, including school leaders, on how to engage families effectively.
- ☒ Coordinate with other federal and state programs, including preschool programs.
- ☒ Provide information in a format and language parents can understand, and offer information in other languages as feasible.

Paul R. Smith Middle School

Explain how parents are provided information regarding the curriculum, achievement levels, progress monitoring and assessments.	Information is updated regularly and posted on our website. Parents can utilize myStudent to monitor student progress as well as staying in touch with the teacher via email, phone calls, and social media.
How will workshops/events be evaluated? How will the needs of parents be assessed to plan future events?	Events and or Workshops will be evaluated through attendance, verbal feedback from parents on the night of the event as well as feedback surveys.
Describe how the needs of parents/families who speak a language other than English will be met at workshops/events.	Families who speak a language other than English will receive district materials in their language and/or will receive support from bi-lingual staff.
What are the barriers for parents to attend workshops/events and how do you overcome these?	Transportation is a barrier with some of our parents. One way to overcome this is to try and offer events at different times of the day when they may have transportation available. We can also post on our website for any family who was unable to attend an opportunity to access the information. We will provide meals at academic parent events.
How are flexible dates and times for meetings, events and/or workshops offered? (Give examples)	We will offer events at different times of the day. Parents seem to respond positively to events that include meals. Academic events will occur during the school day, late afternoon, and late evening.
How are the needs of parents with disabilities accommodated to ensure they have access to meetings, workshops, and/or events?	Paul R. Smith Middle School was built in 2006 and is a fully ADA compliant facility. Access ramps allow for access to all buildings and a functioning elevator allows access to second story classrooms.

**These events should be included on the Data Collection Sheet for School Events.*
